

Outline of CMS Requirements Found in the General Provisions of 40 CFR Parts 60 and 63

Below is a list of the locations of some relevant CMS requirements that you may find helpful. Remember - facilities subject to 40 CFR part 60 or 63 are also subject to the requirements of the General Provisions (found in Subpart A) unless otherwise specified in the applicable subpart.

	Part 60
Definitions	60.2
Notification and recordkeeping	60.7
Startup, shutdown and malfunction records	60.7(b)
Excess emissions and CMS Performance Reports	60.7(c)
Excess emissions summary report content	60.7(d)
Reduction to semi-annual reporting	60.7(e)
Records to be maintained	60.7(f)
Performance testing	60.8
Monitoring requirements	60.13
What CMS are subject to 40 CFR 60, Appendix B and F?	60.13(a)
Performance evaluations	60.13(c)
Daily calibrations	60.13(d)
Continuous operation and minimum frequency of operation	60.13(e)
Representative measurements required	60.13(f)
Combined or multiple stacks	60.13(g)
Data reduction	60.13(h)
Alternative monitoring requests	60.13(i)

Part 63
Definitions	63.2
Performance testing	63.7
Monitoring requirements	63.8
Operation and maintenance of CMS	63.8(c)
Quality control program	63.8(d)
Performance evaluation of CMS. Including notification, test plan, and reporting	63.8(e)
Alternative monitoring requests	63.8(f)
Data Reduction	63.8(g)
Notification Requirements	63.9
Recordkeeping and reporting	63.10
Records retention	63.10(b)
Additional recordkeeping for CMS	63.10(c)
Additional reporting for CMS. Including excess emission and summary reports	63.10(e)